Fairfax County Police investigate the shooting death of a 22-year-old Falls Church area man. Officers were called to 12205 Pender Creek Circle, in the Fair Oaks area, about 4:50 a.m., Saturday, June 25, 2005. Callers reported hearing a fight and possible gun shots. Officers found Jack S. Cornejo of 3160 Nealon Drive, dead with an apparent gun shot wound. He was located in the apartment complex court yard where it is believed the shooting occurred.

Preliminary investigation has determined that an altercation between the victim and another person whom detectives have identified and questioned resulted in the shooting. Detectives continue to question possible witnesses and examine evidence. An autopsy is anticipated early in the week and the results along with all other evidence will be presented to the Commonwealth's Attorney as criminal charges are considered.

Detectives would like to hear from anyone with information regarding this shooting. Callers are asked to call the non-emergency number at 703-691-2131 or callers may also call Fairfax County Crime Solvers at 1-866-411-TIPS (8477).
